In order to process this as a verifiable complaint, please provide the name and address complainant.

Thanks,
Stacy

Stacy:

I have a suggestion, instead of doing this in a piece by piece fashion...please send me the FDLE / CJSTC procedure (ie. Florida Administrative Code) of how such a complaint is receipted.

You below email suggest that all I would have to do is to supply my name
and address and you would process my concerns as a verifiable complaint...however, the below CJSTC website further suggests the compliant must be signed.

So lets cut to the chase - please supply the CJSTC Rule (usually FAC) that defines how these complaints are receipted and processed, and in the particular defines what a "verifiable complaint" consist of and I shall comply fully.

Commission rule does not address how verifiable complaints are received, processed, or what elements they must contain. However, in order to verify the content of the complaint, the complainant's name and contact address are required. You are correct that the website indicates that the complaint must be signed, but, erring on the side of the complainant, it has been our practice to process complaints that are unsigned, as long as we have the complainant's name and address. If you have any additional questions just let me know.
