You don't need anything from me. Just fill in the blanks...you will anyway.

CAUTION: This email came from outside Daytona State.

To: Jessica Paugh:

Thank You for your response.

First, how does one "vet" an anonymous source?

Second, you, within your response have "vetted" some of the information received from the source. You have indeed departed as the deputy chief of NSBPD. You are now employed with DSC.

Third, we never verified that you were under investigation. Actually, in the end - that may be the question - should you have been under investigation?

Fourth, Law enforcement officers are "public employees" - they are public figures, open to public criticism and scrutiny - more than a private citizen would be.

We are still requesting a copy of your resignation letter from NSBPD. Would you be interested in providing us a copy for publication? If so, please use this email address as our point of contact.

Regards, and good luck in your new career.
