Therefore, as outlined in our December 1, 2011 email to your office (see below) and in compliance with Florida law, VolusiaExposed.Com makes this public record request for all documents currently attached to this investigation. If your office is unable in making these records / documents available via electronic format, then we request the ability to inspect the records.

Please either forward the requested records to the below email address, or scheduled our inspection of the records.

Should the county claim a public record release exemption * then, please state, in the particular, which exemptions are being claimed. (Florida law)

Should there be a cost associated with this public record request, please forward the invoice to the below email address.

Thank You
