Just a short courtesy reply, as I don't intend to respond point-by-point to your very detailed e-mail. In my view, most of the postings on your web site do not relate to factual questions or discrepancies, but rather are an expression of VolusiaExposed's opinions regarding the handling of certain matters. It is quite obviously your prerogative to make inferences and assertions regarding these matters and express your agreement or disagreement in whatever lawful manner you wish. However, I do not intend to challenge or debate or respond to the opinions as expressed on your web site. Please don't mistake any lack of response as confirmation of the accuracy of your opinions or agreement with any of your stated positions. My duty is to fulfill our statutory responsibility to provide you with public records upon request. For the most part, what you do with the records and the information contained therein is not my concern.

If you are sincere about wanting to post information regarding positive achievements within the Sheriff's Office, I have two suggestions: First, if you haven't already done so, I would suggest getting on the e-mail distribution list for receipt of our news releases. Our Deputies do an excellent job and regularly make significant and noteworthy arrests that are documented in our news releases. Secondly, we have a section of our web site devoted to employee awards and recognitions. Here's the link to the page. Please feel free to surf the page and post any items you deem worthy of public recognition:

Lastly, I'd like to thank you for providing the two prior e-mail messages that went unanswered by me. I still can find no record of having received them. However, our Information Systems group is checking the server and I will let you know what they find out.

Regards,
Gary
